

ALES INTERNATIONAL ENGAGEMENT AWARD

Description

This award is given to recognize outstanding contributions by an individual for internationally-related service to the Department, Faculty, University and/or Community.

Eligibility

- Nominees for the ALES Award for International Engagement may be current academic or non-academic staff, adjunct or visiting professors, or associated with the Faculty's institutional partners.
- Previous nominations can be resubmitted, but previous winners of the award are excluded from further competition.
- Nominators should consider the equity, diversity and inclusivity elements of the University of Alberta's Strategic Plan for Equity, Diversity, and Inclusivity and the Dimensions Charter when developing nominations.

General Criteria and Guidelines

- Each of the departments and the Faculty of Agricultural, Life & Environmental Sciences administration can forward one nomination per year.
- There are no fixed criteria for this award, since the types of service that may be recognized are so diverse. The nomination package should include:
 - indication of strong support by the Chair or Dean of the unit making the nomination
 - a clear description of the contribution rendered
 - evidence that this engagement is effective and innovative
 - letters of support from students, colleagues or the community, as appropriate
 - a description of the nominee's contribution to and impacts on equity, diversity, and inclusivity outside of the scholarly community and/or within the scholarly community
- There is no set format for the nomination, but it must not be greater than 10 pages in length including all letters of support.

Adjudication

This award will be adjudicated by the ALES Awards Committee.

Application Deadline

- Deadline for submission: November 29, 2024
- All nominations/applications are to be sent electronically to ales.awards@ualberta.ca